Pop Sensation Kaci Brown Scores a Reality Show

After an album, chart topping singles, and a tour with the Backstreet Boys, Kaci has her own show on UthTV.

New York, NY, August 10th, 2006 – The Ashley Simpson Show, Making the Band, and Cheyenne reality TV shows do not compare to the real raw documentary style show about Kaci Brown. On this reality show, Kaci uses her own camcorder to record her incredible journey to stardom. This UthTV.com show follows the up and coming star as she travels around Europe learning about herself and the world to fuse the enlightening experiences into her music. On Friday, August 11th, the 18-year old Interscope/Geffen artist will kick off her reality show series exclusively for UthTV.

By the age of 17, she had recorded an album with sensational hits that aired on MTV and TRL and gone on tour with the Backstreet Boys, but she has never had an experience like this. Armed with a camera and loads of wit, Kaci will broadcast snippets of her travels sharing her thoughts, dreams, concerns and frustrations. A close-up snap shot of the glamorous, humorous and certainly at times less than glamorous reality of Kaci's life. "I've been filming almost every step of the most interesting parts of my life. I'm really excited to see how the episodes come out," chimed Kaci while globe-trotting in Paris.

Fans will get an inside look into the life of Kaci while seeing the extraordinary process of a young artist growing and gaining inspiration from a world-trotting cultural experience. In the spirit of Kaci's adventures, UthTV will launch a "Submit a piece about your journey" contest. The winner will receive a limited edition 'Instigator' Guess watch, designed by Kaci Brown. In providing an environment for youth to voice their experiences, adventures, and significant occurrences, UthTV is nurturing a community for young people to create, define, and promote their talents.
